HILDA'S STORY

Hilda Marie Jackson-Connor, our loving sister, walked her last mile and went home with Jesus on January 19, 2024.

She was born to the late Willie and Sadie Jackson in Pompano Beach, Florida on January 25, 1956, and completed her formal education at William Penn High School in the city of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

She was joined together in marriage to Ronald Connor in 1976. As her occupation, she was a seamstress. She accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Savior in 1997 and was a devoted member of Christian Stronghold Community Church in Princess Anne, Maryland.

Hilda attended the Worcester Commission on Aging Center in Snow Hill, Maryland where she developed new friendships and participated in activities that brought her much joy. She also loved to have a good time singing and dancing with her younger siblings. She would often start the party off with her favorite song, "Get Down Tonight" by KC and the Sunshine Band. She always displayed how much she loved her family by greeting us with a huge smile when we would walk in the room to show how happy she was to see us. "Hey girlfriend" was her greeting to all women. She always reminded us of the love she had for us when it was time to say goodbye.

She leaves behind to cherish precious memories: twelve siblings, brothers, Reverend Willie Joe Jackson, Jr., Appaula (Vent), Wallace and Isaac; sisters, Vandella, Inez, Mona, Antoinette and four foster sisters, Loretta, Erica, Michelle and Brianna; sisters-in-law, Lisa, Annette, April and Rochelle Jackson and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, uncles and aunts.

Hilda was preceded in death by her father and mother, a brother-in-law, Allan, sister-in-law, Melissa, niece, Chardaisah and nephews, Antwine and Montae.
