

Iassac Maurice Wyatt

March 4, 1971 - April 28, 2022

Iassac's Life Story

Iassac Maurice Wyatt was born on March 4, 1971 to Verlon Brown of Salisbury, Maryland and Theresa L Wyatt. of Whaleyville, Maryland. He drifted into eternal peace on Thursday, April 28, 2022 at his residence.

Iassac graduated from Stephen Decatur High School in Berlin, Maryland. He attended the University of Maryland Eastern Shore (UMES) in Princess Anne, Maryland and enlisted into the United States Army in 1994. Iassac was affectionately known as "Samir" by many who knew and loved him.

Throughout the years of his life, Iassac attended Pullet's United Methodist Church in Whaleyville, Maryland and Victory Faith Worship Center in Fruitland Maryland. Iassac rededicated his life back to Christ in September of 2021.

Iassac was a free-spirited person who loved life, his family and being around people. Iassac often reminisced about growing up with his cousins who were like brothers, and how they had such great experiences together. Iassac always encouraged his nephews to excel in life. He would inquire often about how they were doing and tell them he loved them. Iassac always looked forward to the annual family cookout so he could spend time with family, friends and loved ones.

Iassac leaves to cherish his passing: one son, Zachary O'Neil Wyatt of Westminster, Maryland; one sister, Carolyn D. Armstrong of Newark, Delaware; two nephews, Aaron Lamont Wyatt of Whaleyville, Maryland and Jeremy Dion Greene of Salisbury, Maryland; two grandchildren, Amethyst Honey Wyatt and Sage Harmony Howard; one great niece, Chloe' Angelina Wyatt and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and friends who loved him dearly.

Isaac was preceded in death by his grandfather, Isaiah Armstrong, Jr.; stepfather, Gary Alexander Wyatt and sister Angie Dynette Wyatt.
