“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy to us all, but Almighty God is going to wipe away every tear from our eyes and death will be no more. Neither will mourning, outcry or pain be anymore. (Revelation 21:4) Please look forward to that time. Until then may your entire family be comforted and blessed.

“ Marlo and Shauna,
So sorry to learn of your mother's passing. She was a good mother. Whenever I saw her we talked about you. She was so proud. May she rest in peace.

“ I did not know your mother personally, but she would greet me with a smile, a compliment and/or something to make me smile when I entered Sam's club. I would be happy to see her up front. I am sure that anyone who has patronized the establishment and who has had contact with her would gladly and surely say that she was a kind, welcoming, and heartwarming woman. You have my deepest sympathies and you are in my prayers.

“ My heartfelt condolences to the family. I am so sorry for your loss. May you find comfort through the loving and happy memories of your dear loved one, Ida. May you also look to our loving Heavenly Father, the God of all comfort, to provide what you need at this very sad time. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4, Psalms 83:18). He promises us that very soon, "He will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Revelation 21:3,4, Isaiah 33:24. He also promises us that there will be a resurrection of our loved ones that we have lost in death, and they will have the opportunity to live forever in perfect health in Paradise right here on earth. (John 5:28,29, Psalms 37:10,11). What wonderful promises! Can you imagine a time on earth when there will be no more sickness, pain or death? May all of God's promises give you a measure of comfort, peace, hope and strength. I have personally found very comforting thoughts on jw.org.
