

Ida Virginia Hitch

September 16, 1954 - September 12, 2017

The road often leads through green pastures and beside the still waters, more often through long valleys, shadowless and deep, over mountains unscable; but we ask no questions concerning the road as we journey, for the road leads us Home. He Himself walks with us.

Our beloved Ida Virginia Hitch got on this road leading home as she slipped away to be with God on Tuesday morning, September 12, 2017 at the tender age of 62. She was the daughter of Betty L. Stanley and Handy D. Stanley.

She was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother whose happy smile could brighten your day and anyone passing her way. We cannot make this journey alone, and our hearts are truly filled today for Ida had a faith that took her through her trials and tribulations.

She attended Paul Lawrence Dunbar Elementary School in Laurel, Delaware; completed high school at Delmar High School in Delmar, Delaware. She worked as Secretary of the System Operations Department at Delmarva Power for 25 years. After retiring from Delmarva Power she served as clerk at Skywatch Electronics for 10 years.

She is survived by her devoted husband of 42 years, Gregory G. Hitch, Sr., of Delmar, Maryland; one son, Gregory G. Hitch, Jr. and his wife Ja'Net of Hebron, Maryland; three sisters Linda Lee of Laurel, Delaware, Annette Stanley of Laurel, Delaware and Jeanette Smith and her husband Anthony of Delmar, Maryland; three grandchildren, Ja'Neya, E'Niya, and Rz'Waan Hitch; one nephew, Michael Fooks; one niece, Jasmine Smith Horsey and her husband Brandon; one great nephew, Michael Fooks, Jr.; one great niece, Jayda Fooks; and a host of cousins and friends. She was preceded in death by her mother, Betty L. Stanley; and one niece, Genea Fooks.

“ I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. I hope you will find comfort in knowing that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will soon eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when “all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Christ’s] voice and come out”! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that “he will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isa. 25:8) Then, instead of having to “weep with those who weep,” all earth’s inhabitants will “rejoice with those who rejoice.”—Rom. 12:15.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ Dear Greg,
I am so sorry for your loss. You and Little Greg and the family are in my prayers for sure. I honestly don't know if words can even express just how much I cared for Ms. Ida and how I feel like you guys are my family. I loved her! and will miss her so much. My heart is broken but I know that I will see her again one day. She was amazing, a friend like no other and I am so glad that the last time I saw her I hugged her tight (right there in Walmart.) I will miss those hugs. Please know that if there is anything you need, David and I are here.
With love and prayers,
Julie

“ Dear Greg and the entire Family, IDA was my dear friend, she worked with me and allowed me the honor of being a part of the family. My wife & I will never forget the evening we all cried together tears of joy when you got your house. I know we will see each other again in Heaven, because she was one of my Angels, I will miss here on earth though I know she is at peace. Please take comfort in the knowledge we will all see each other again. Yours, John Theofiles

“ Dear Greg, Little Greg, and your entire family; It is important you know how sorry I am for Ida's passing. I have a broken heart, but I try to focus on our past work life together. We had some amazing times working for Jack Matthews. I thought of Ida like Family. I am so sorry I had not connected with Ida in quite some time. Her picture is beautiful in the Oval Frame. What a special touch. Take care and always know you are in my heart. Love and Prayers, Norma.

“ I would like to offer my personal condolences to your family. I hope that you will be able find strength in Gods promise at Revelation 21:4 that soon: he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. You are in my thoughts and prayers and once more I am deeply sorry for your familys loss.

“ Greg, it's hard for me to imagine what you are going through. I am away at the moment and will not return until Sunday. But know that I am thinking about you and praying that you get through this; and you will. Ida was so easy to work with; so easy to like and love; so easy to get along with. I will miss seeing you two out together. Stay strong Greg. Dennis
