On behalf of your down south cousins. Deepest Condolences to Jennie Raynor and your family, on the transition of your sister. It was almost 50 years ago that we were with your family at your father's funeral and now it's our generation with your only sibling. May you take comfort the words from 2 Timothy 4:7-8

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give to me at that day; and not to me only, but also to all of them that have loved his appearing". May God continue to bless and comfort you during this time of bereavement.
