

Ikea Nicole Jackson

October 27, 1988 - December 5, 2016

I'kea Nicole Jackson, daughter of Barbara Jackson Shelton and Sheldon Lewis, was born on October 27, 1988, in Richmond, VA. She went home to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on December 5, 2016. She was 28 years old.

I'kea attended church and gave her life to Christ at an early age. She attended Queen Anne's County Public Schools and played basketball for one season at Queen Anne's County High School, in Centreville, MD.

I'kea was employed at numerous jobs including Food Lion, Schuman, Friels, and most recently Movin' Brooms in Anne Arundel County, MD.

I'kea liked sports and music. Her favorite rapper was Lil' Wayne. Sometimes she thought she was him. She was a very fashionable person. Every time she got dressed was like a fashion show. She had to wash the clothes, dry them, iron them, try on five or six different outfits, and then do her hair at the last minute. She was the definition of fresh to death. She had all the shoes in the world and only wore them once. Every time I'kea came around she would have a smile on her face. Once she had you laughing it was hard to stop. Everywhere she went a crowd would gather around her. People just gravitated towards her. She was always on the go. She loved getting behind the wheel of anything and go. She always had all eyes on her and loved hanging with childhood friends. She even loved children and playing with them. There will be nobody else like I'kea. We are blessed to have known her.

I'kea leaves to cherish precious memories her parents, Barbara Jackson Shelton, Louisville, KY, and Sheldon Lewis, Dover, DE; stepmother, Lisa Lewis, Dover, DE; stepfather, Bennie Milton, Louisville, KY; siblings, Brittany Lewis, Brandon Lewis, and Bradley Lewis, Dover, DE, Albresha Shelton, Richmond, VA, and Breallei Milton, Louisville, KY; grandparents Emma Jean Jackson, Richmond, VA, and Gwendolyn Lewis and Larry Wilson, Pondtown, MD, and Robert Sudler, Centreville, MD; aunts and uncles, Claunita Jones, Richmond, VA; Joseph Jackson, Jr., Celestine Heath and Emerson Allen, Sr., Sudlersville, MD, Robert Sudler, Jr., Octavia (Terry) Sudler, and Dameon Sudler, Centreville, MD; and a host of cousins and friends.

“ Dear Family,

You have my deepest condolences. Ikea was well known and the minute you met her, you would immediately fall in love with her. She was an amazing person. I thank God that I had an opportunity to know her. When my ^ year old son lost his Father in January 2016, Ikea found it in her heart to reach out to me just to see how my son was doing. I appreciate that. Like, you said there will never be anyone on this earth like IKEA. She was one of a kind. May her soul REST IN PARADISE

“ Extending deepest sympathy to family and friends in this time of sorrow. Please find comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28,29) Until that blessed day, may the GOD of all comfort grant you peace while many fond memories warm your hearts.

“ To the family,
Please accept my heartfelt condolences for the loss of Ikea. In times like this, the Bible is a true source of comfort. John 5:28,29 talks about a time when dead loved ones like Ikea will be raised up back to life in conditions free from sickness and death. Yes, Almighty God who cannot lie has promised to do this.

Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted. (Matthew 5:4)
Jesus promises to send you a comforter. He always keeps His promises. He knows what each of you are going through, and He will put each of your tears in a bottle. He will wipe all tears from your eyes. Cherish the fond memories of your loved one. Continue to trust God in all things, knowing that God is with you in all that you go through.
