“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. The bible gives us hope for the future. It tells us at Revelation 21:4, that soon Almighty God is going to remove death, mourning, tears and pain. Please look forward to that time. Until then may the God of all comfort grant your family peace.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ My wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved. We hope you may be comforted by the wonderful promise Jesus made when he said, as recorded in the Bible, that was going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). Along with that sure promise Almighty God tells us that He is going to remove forever all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and death that mankind has endured for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29)! What a glorious day that will surely be! All God is asking of us is that we do His will, not our own (1 John 2:17; 5:3; Proverbs 3:5,6). As you read and meditate on these words in your own Bible may you be comforted and blessed for what the future brings (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
