

Inez Mae Taylor

May 20, 1926 - January 10, 2022

INEZ TAYLOR'S LIFE AND LEGACY

Inez Mae Drummond Taylor was born on May 20, 1924, to the late Harry and Helen Pinkard. She departed this life to be with God on January 10, 2022.

She was educated in the Accomack County public school system and worked in housekeeping. Inez was united in holy matrimony to the late Harold James Taylor.

Inez enjoyed the simple things in life like cooking, sewing and watching her soap operas. She loved flying, especially when she would visit with her son, daughters and grandchildren who lived away. She was a very quiet and soft-spoken person who enjoyed a good laugh, just for the fun of it. Inez loved her family dearly, with a truly unconditional love and was the one who kept everyone together. She will be missed more than she could ever imagine. We love you mamma.

Inez was a member of New Macedonia Baptist Church in Pocomoke City, Maryland. While she was not a member of any auxiliaries, she would faithfully contribute to any cause.

She leaves to cherish a lifetime of precious memories with: her four daughters, Thelma Donald and Geraldine Taylor, both of Saint Petersburg, Florida and Hazel and Hester Ann Taylor, both of Pocomoke City, Maryland; three sons, Robert (Shalinda) Taylor of Princess Anne, Maryland, Billy Taylor of Riverview, Florida and George Taylor of Pocomoke City, Maryland; one sister, Pauline Hall of Withams, Virginia; two sisters-in-law, Mary Pinkard of Atlantic, Virginia and Mildred Milbourne of Parksley, Virginia; two brothers-in-law, Willie Harmon of Pocomoke City, Maryland and Vernon Taylor of Salem, New Jersey and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, great great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

In addition to her parents, Harry and Helen Pinkard, Inez was preceded in death by two daughters, Catherine Taylor and Audrey Corbin, one son, William Taylor and one grandson, Coston Taylor.

LOVINGLY SUBMITTED,
THE FAMILY

Tribute Wall

CA

“ *To The Family:
One who blooms in our heart can never be forgotten. May you find comfort and strength in the memories you shared with your dear one. Please accept our deepest condolences and know that God loves you and can restore your spirits,give you peace. Know that we are here for you, wishing you peace and brighter days to come..Keeping the entire family in our prayers.
In Christ Love,
First Baptist Church, Mappsville, Va.
Rev. Fred Crawley, Sr. Pastor*

carla - January 19, 2022 at 10:19 AM

BF

“ It sadden my heart to hear the passing of Ms. Inez. She was such a sweet person with a sweet spirit. She didn't talk much but was so kind. I have known her and her family for a long time. Ms. Inez could cook anything and my family and I looked forward to the special meals she would prepare for us. You are with God and your husband now and walking the streets of gold, I would often asked her children about her and pray for her daily . My prayers are with the entire family and I am here for you, if you need me.Remember, "Weeping May Endure for A Night, but Joy is coming in the morning." Sleep on, Ms. Inez take your rest, see you in the morning.

Bishop Isaac Jenkins & Family - January 18, 2022 at 12:35 PM

AF

“ Sending heartfelt Condolences, Prayers and Love to the family of Mrs Inez Taylor.

She was a sweet, soft spoken Lady who often cared for my boys as they were growing up in Unionville. We all considered each other family. She leaves a wonderful legacy of family, friends and neighbors. She will be greatly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her. May she rest on in eternal peace. Arlene (Milburn)Fisher and Family

Arlene Fisher - January 16, 2022 at 06:49 PM

VJ

My sincere condolences to the family of Mrs. Inez Taylor. We have been a church family for as long as I can remember. To all of the children and grandchildren, I know it must seem like midnight right now but your morning will come. May she rest in the bosom of our Lord and Savior. God's blessings to you all.

Vanessa Jones - January 17, 2022 at 06:58 AM