

Irene Doris Evans-Sewell

March 26, 1953 - February 2, 2018

Life Story

Irene Doris Evans-Sewell was born on Thursday, March 26, 1953, in Frankford, Delaware, the 12th of 16 children, born to the late Gordy Benny Collick and Bernice Walters Collick. Lovingly known as Doris, she passed away on Friday, February 2, 2018, at Harbour Healthcare & Rehabilitation Center in Lewes, Delaware.

Doris was educated in the Indian River Public School System, in Frankford, Delaware. She enjoyed M&M's with peanuts, but she would spit the peanuts out! She also liked watermelon and cheese curls. She loved to sing and dance and loved Jesus because praising God was her greatest joy. She loved everybody; everybody was her friend, and she would take "anybody" in, if she could. She had a wonderful personality, a trait envied by many.

Doris leaves to cherish her memory, one daughter, Pamela B. Collick (Michael) of Cheriton, Virginia; two sons, Lemuel M. Collick and William L. Collick, both of Seaford, Delaware; 7 grand children, several great-grandchildren; four sisters: Phyllis, Connie, Sylvia and Gloria; and one brother, James Edward.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. We send this condolence with the hope that the Bible provides all of us at difficult times like this.

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). As death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason, as well as others, He promises to remove FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious day that will surely be! It's a reality and a sure hope that we can trust in because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2).

My wife and I sincerely encourage you to look up and meditate on these noted scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16; 2 Timothy 3:16, 17). You will surely be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope our Grand Creator has in store for us (John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ I know Grief can be so hard, may your family find strength in God’s promise at (Isaiah 25: 8) that soon “he will swallow up death forever”. You have my deepest sympathy.
