“ Dear Irene, would you believe little Kennedy will be 15 tomorrow. I really wish you could see her, she is growing up so fast. I really always thought we would spend are older years talking and sharing memories. So many things pop up on Facebook and really make me think of you. I miss you so much, I never thought you would have left us so soon. I took so much for granted! I love you so much. I pray you know how much you are loved and missed. Love your little sister ♡♡

“ *My Dear Sister, It has been 3 years today since you left us. Irene I miss you more each day. I think more of happy memories sometimes and the laughs we had together. I remember how we would be upset with each other but we would end up laughing about it. I will never forgive myself for not understanding how hard your life was with you know who, we agreed never to say his name. I will always miss you, really miss your smile and laugh. I talk to you a lot in my prayers but I still want to call you so many times to share something with you. I talked to Mike the other day, he's working hard. He said he's doing good. This week I know is hard for him also, with Mother's Day Sunday. Irene I really hope you know how much he loves you. I know he spent a lot of time at my house but he wanted to be around Jeff and Bruce too. I have really felt like he was a little brother to me. But Jeff and Bruce have always treated him like their brother. Irene we will always be there for Mike. I miss you my dear big sister, I Love You! Love your little sister ❤️
Happy Mother's Day*

“ Dear Irene, it has been so long since any of my letters have been posted. It kind of makes me feel like I have no way to talk with you. It’s so hard for me to get to the cemetery and being able to really get to tell you how I feel and how much I love and miss you. Today when I woke up I really missed Mom she has been gone now almost 22 years. I know I have a lot to be thankful for and I am very blessed. But I miss you, Mom and Dad so much. Sometimes I feel like the ones that really wanted to spend time with me aren’t here anymore. I am so sorry for the time I took for granted. I never really thought about how soon I would lose you all. I love all of you so much and miss you all everyday.
Mike is doing good, he is moving to a new apartment a lot closer to work, we don’t see him as much as we like, but hard for him to get home. I miss you so much my dear sister! Love your little sister 💕

“ Dear Irene, thinking a lot about you lately, you know I really don't like winter. The only thing I do like is the holidays and spending time with family! But the family part gets harder each year. It really makes me miss you, mom and dad even more.

I really don't understand why my letters are not showing up it has been before Christmas that I have seen anything has been posted. This really makes me feel like I really don't have anything anymore. I feel like in some ways I am sharing thoughts with you. I just miss talking to you so much. I never could have imagined how much I miss you. I will always have you in my heart and I see you in Mike.

Love you always, your little sister ♡♡

“ My Dear Sister Irene I have been writing you letters and the are not showing up on the memory wall. I feel in ways like you are not getting my letters. I miss you so much! In May it will be 3 years since you left us, there isn't a day that goes by that I don't think about you, I miss you so much I really miss talking to you and hearing your laugh. So much is going crazy at times and I miss us talking about these things and sometimes we would end up laughing and would feel better about whatever we were worried about. There is nobody to talk to the way we did. You were a wonderful sister and friend! I love you so much. I hope this letter shows up, it just helps me . Love your little sister 💕💕

“ Dear Irene, Just wanted to tell you that I talked to Mike. He seems to be doing better! I know he loves California but I worry about him out there alone. But I don't think he will ever move back to Maryland. Just wish he was closer. I don't know why but my letters don't seem to get posted and really makes me miss you more. At least before I felt like I was writing you and it a strange way seemed like it helped. I miss you so much. I don't think I will ever get over not talking to you. I still want to call you and tell you about something that has happened or something I heard that I think you would laugh at. I can't always get to the cemetery to talk with you so in ways I feel like when I write, you know it. I love you so much and miss you so much everyday. Always in my heart and prayers! I pray you know how much you are loved and missed. Love your little sister ❤️

“ Dear Sister, I know my letters really don't reach you, but it helps sometimes to write them. I don't know why they take so long to be posted. It just kind of makes me smile when I see them. I miss you so much this time of the year. The holidays are hard at times, I never really liked January. Then to make it harder this when you went in the hospital.

Would you believe sent Mike his gifts he couldn't fit in his suitcase and it's been over 2 weeks and he still hasn't received the package. It was so great to see him after all this time. I can't imagine how hard it was for you. We both miss you so much! It would really be nice to see Mike more, but he's so far away. Irene I love you so much and think about you always. I was lucky to have you for my sister! Love you you're little sister ❤️

“ My Dear Sister, thinking about you a lot this week. I never really liked January, the holidays were over, Mike goes back to California. Then I really don't see my son's and their family's a lot, they lay low after the holidays! Then this is when you went to the hospital 3 year's ago. I never thought you would never leave the hospital. I really wish I came to see you more. Irene I miss you so much. I miss talking to you so much and miss your smiling face. I really miss hearing you laugh at something we would be talking about or a memory we would share. It really isn't getting any easier the more time goes by I miss you more, I remember how we would talk about growing old together and sitting on the porch in rocking chairs. We probably would be talking about our family and all the thing's we have shared together. We had many wonderful memories and years together. I love you so much. I pray that you know how much you meant to me and how much I love you and miss you. Love your little sister 💕💕

I didn't realize how hard that must have been on you, for Mike to spend so much time with us. But I do know it had nothing to do with how much he loved you. I know he always wanted to be with Jeff and Bruce they have always been like brothers. We all love him and I promised you I will always be there for him as long as I am able. We have always had wonderful Christmas's together. I miss you so much, my dear sister I love you so much and think about you often. I really pray that you know how much you are loved and missed. I wrote you on your birthday and still hasn't been posted .That makes feel like you haven't been getting them. I no it's crazy but it really helps to be able to write you letters. Good news Mike made it home this year, I didn't want to stop hugging him when we picked him up! I even felt closer to you. Mike is doing good he looks great. When I look at his eyes I see you. We both miss you so much, we were talking about a lot of great memories. I really wish you were here with us. So much time was waisted that we all could have spent together. Irene I love you so much and think about you always. I will always try to help and be here for your son. Merry Christmas 🌲 I sure do love you my dear sister ❤️ Love your little sister

“ My Dear Sister today would be your birthday, sure did think about you a lot today. Was thinking a lot about us growing up the things we did. I remembered how you use to make up stories to tell me at night, and how every Saturday night we would watch the monkeys on tv eating dinner down stairs. We shared so much together! I was lucky to have you for a sister. Irene I miss and love you so much. I miss you calling me and how we would talk about almost anything. I will never have what we had with anyone, there is nothing like a bond between sisters. I love you so much, Happy Birthday Irene, Love your little sister 💕💕

We still have to be careful of the virus still a lot of people are still getting sick. I'm glad you are not in the hospital with all this going on it would be horrible not to be able to be with you, I no you would not understand this mess. We went to see are old house where we grew up and where we went to school, really made me miss you more. It brought back so many memories of us growing up. We really did have a wonderful life. We had so much fun ,shared a lot of laughs and sometimes tears, but we were always there for each other. There is nothing like a special bond between sisters, I love you so much you will always be in my heart and I will miss you everyday. Love your little sister 💕💕*

“ Dear Irene, I'm was just sitting here remembering all the memorial days we used to have cookouts. We always had so much fun. You would always make the potato salad. Mom always made the coleslaw. We had such a great time, we eat to much and play badminton. After we moved to Easton Bruce would always get the pool ready. I miss the good old days. Things are not the same anymore. I miss you more and more every day. I love you so much! We argued we cried and we laughed together, we shared many memories. I will never have what we shared with anyone else! A day doesn\u2019t go by that I don\u2019t think about you or something will remind me of you. Or something that only you would understand, or only you and I would remember and find funny. We had so many memories together. I will never have that with anyone else! Irene I love you so much and miss you. I miss hearing you laugh, and seeing you smile. Even in the hospital we could make each other laugh. I don\u2019t think anyone understood us at times. I really thought we were going to grow old together. I hope you know how much you meant to me and you know how much you are loved. I hope you can feel my hugs in heaven. Love you forever your little sister \ud83d\udc95 Happy Mothers Day

“ My Dear Sister, Merry Christmas in Heaven. This is a very different Christmas this year. We are alone today for the first time ever really strange. Mike couldn\u2019t get home because of virus yuk. It really bothers me to think of him all by himself in California. I did send him some raisin bread and cookies! Really makes me think of you and how the last couple Christmas\u2019s you were for the most part alone. I really wish we would have knew how bad it was for you. I blame myself for a lot. I think I didn\u2019t want to believe someone could be so mean and hateful to you. You always had a big heart. You no who really convinced me the problem was you for along time! But we all no the truth... I am so sorry and will never forgive myself. Irene I miss and love you so much. You were my best friend! I pray you know how much you mean to me. “ My dear sister, I miss you so much. Today it has been a year since you left us. So many times I have wanted to call you to tell you something that happened and I thought wait till I tell you. Usually it was things you and I would only understand why it bothered me or why I found it to be funny. And sometimes just because it made me think of you. I talked to a Mike the other day he\u2019s doing ok, he misses you and Jimmy called today we all think about you often. I love you so much and I really miss talking to you. I pray you hear me when I talk to you. I really hope you forgive me for not always being there for you. I love you so much. Your little sister

“ Dear Irene, today is Easter and it is not like any we have ever had. There is a very bad virus going around and nobody can be together, it really made me realize how lonely you must have been when you were in the trailer. Growing up we had many wonderful Easter\u2019s. I miss you so much and love you with all my heart.

“ Last night I had a dream about you, it was the first time in a long time. When I woke up I really missed you so much. I know this time last year you were in the hospital I didn\u2019t think you would leave us so fast. I did really enjoy being able to talk to you anytime again. I just didn\u2019t realize how soon it was going to end. I still miss you so much I love you and will always. I talked to Mike the other day we both love and miss you so much, we always can think of some funny memories. You\u2019re the best sister! I pray you are with mom and dad and you all know how much I love you all and I\u2019m so sorry if I did anything to let you all down or hurt you in anyway, please forgive me !

“ My dear sister this is my first Christmas without you. I really miss you so much it was not the same, Mike didn\u2019t even come home. I just wish we had more time together, you know all my secrets, my fears and we shared so many memories growing up. We were supposed to grow old together and sit on my porch in rocking chairs and talk about our family and memories. I have nobody now. You we\u2019re always on my side, Irene I miss you so much and I love you with all my heart, I pray you Mom and Dad are all together, and know how much I miss and love you all. Hug everyone for me. \ud83d\udc9c

“ I like to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. It was never God\u2019s intent that death should rule over mankind. - Romans 5:12; 1Corinthians 15:26, 55; God will do away with death. But for now God has provided hope-as stated at John 5:28, 29. During this most painful time please find comfort from God\u2019s word.

“ I\u2019m so sorry for your loss. Jesus Christ boldly promised: \u201cJust as the Father raises the dead up and makes them alive, so the Son also makes those alive whom he wants to. Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus\u2019] voice and come out.\u201d (John 5:21, 28, 29)
