

Isaac Lee Hayman

March 19, 1951 - February 13, 2021

Isaac Lee Hayman, affectionately known as “Ike” to many, was born on March 19, 1951 to the late Eula Mae Hayman and Isaac Davis. He accepted Christ as his personal Savior at an early age and was called from labor to reward on Saturday, February 13, 2021 at his residence in Pocomoke City, Maryland.

He was educated in Somerset County public school system. He was employed by Dollar General, Delmarva Marina, Darnell’s Rainbow Inn and several side jobs until his health began to fail.

Ike was known to be straight forward and was highly respected. He was strong willed and a hard worker, and he helped provide for anyone who was in need.

Ike proudly embraced the black and yellow colors of his favorite football team, the Pittsburgh Steelers. He spent many of his days with family and enjoyed playing pinochle, scratch offs and crossword puzzles. He always left a lasting impression on those he came across and will be deeply missed by his loved ones and friends. His courage, strength, and personality will never be forgotten as he will continue to live through us all.

Ike leaves to mourn and cherish precious memories: five sisters, Lois Cottman of Pocomoke MD, Joan Hayman and Laverne Stewart, both of Princess Anne, MD, Gloria Davis of Salisbury, MD and Mamie Davis of Washington, DC; six brothers, Vernon Davis and Marvin (Connie) Bryant, both of Pocomoke City, MD, Wayne (Makeita) Hayman of Newark, MD, Calvin (Dianna) Whitney and George Hayman, both of Princess Anne, MD and Sylvester Hayman of Louisiana; brother –in-law James Cottman; a devoted nephew, David Phillips, Jr. of Princess Anne, MD; god daughter, Lynell Spence of Princess Anne, MD; devoted cousin, Vivian Lee Hayman of Princess Anne, MD and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

In addition to his parents, Ike was preceded in death by two brothers, Melvin Bryant and David Eady as well as several aunts, uncles, and cousins.

SORROWFULLY SUBMITTED,
THE FAMILY

“ I am so sorry to hear of his passing. Ike walked home from Somerset High School a many a day with me and Jann. He did have such an interesting personality and was strong in his beliefs. Talking with him was always fun and enjoyable. I haven't seen him since graduation but he will always be in my memories. He was a really good person. My sincerest condolences to the family.
