

Isabelle E. Farrare

August 17, 1917 - March 17, 2014

Isabelle Elizabeth Farrare, affectionately known as Belle, was born in Painter, VA on August 17, 1917 to the late Isabelle Wise and James Ayres. She had four sisters and one brother.

On Monday morning March 17, 2014, she peacefully departed this life at Signature Healthcare at Mallard Bay in Cambridge, MD.

Isabelle was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, James Farrare; her son, Roosevelt Little; three sisters, Maggie, Mary and Pearl; and her little brother, James Ayers.

Isabelle attended Mount Zion Elementary School and Mary N. Smith High School in Accomac County, VA. At an early age, Isabelle gave her life to Jesus Christ at Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Virginia.

In 1952, Isabella moved to Vienna, MD and met the love of her life and later married him, James (Jim) Farrare.

She became a member of Zoar United Methodist Church, where she served as an usher and a member of the Senior Choir until her sickness.

Isabelle enjoyed going out to eat and attending the Senior Center in Hurlock. She loved stuffed animals and artificial flowers.

During her extended illness, her nieces: Lucinda Riley, Vatrice Walker and Delores Jones were by her side, along with Eurnice Lena Jones, Vernon Farrare, Mary (sister) Cain; her best friend, Bonnie Belle Willey; a friend, Bobby Williams; a nephew; and a host of family and friends; as well as her neighbor, Rachel and Winfield Jackson.

She leaves to cherish her memories a sister, Hattie; seven grandchildren, Angela, Benita, Michelle, Victor, Pamela, Maurice and Rickey; four nieces, her name sake, Isabelle Rosalee, who she named before she was born, Janet, Mary Anne and Lucinda; a nephew, Bobby Williams; and a host of relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy during the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy to mankind and Almighty God promises that He is going to remove death, sickness and pain in the near future. (Revelation 21:3&4) Please take comfort in the scriptures during your time of grief and may your entire family be comforted and blessed.
