“ I am truly sorry about your loss it's hard when we lose a loved one. However, I wanted to let you know that we can be comforted by a future hope. Soon there will be no more pain or sorrow. All the former things have passed away. (Rev 21:3,4)

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.

“ Dear Family, though your hearts are heavy with pain and sorrow right now, over the loss of your dear loved one, but know that our heavenly Father did not leave you without hope. God did not create mankind to suffer the sting of death. He lovingly provided hope of one day being reunited with our loved ones. Acts 24:15; Revelation 21:4; Hosea 13:14. I sincerely express my deepest sympathy. \t

“ My dear wife and I would like to take this opportunity to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. Times like this are often very overwhelming to cope with in the family. It is our hope that what the Bible reveals to us about all those who have died may comfort you. Almighty God promises by means of His Word that one day his beloved son, Jesus Christ is going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). We can have confidence and a sure hope that this promise will come true because the Bible tells us that it is "impossible for God to lie" (Hebrews 6:18). Until that glorious day may you be comforted and strengthened to cope with life's problems and challenges knowing what lies ahead (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
