“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God \"will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.\"

“ Sherri and family,\r\nI am so sorry for your loss. I have such fond memories of Isaiah. When I first met you and Isaiah at his intake to Charlton, I remember you telling me he was very happy and always smiling. Over the years I shared with Isaiah I enjoyed that bright smile and those sparkling eyes. He always had that little gleam in his eyes like he was up to something. I truly feel blessed that my path crossed with Isaiah's. May the beautiful memories you have of Isaiah bring you and your family peace.
