

Isaiah B. Ross

August 16, 1956 - June 25, 2019

God saw fit to remove from his earthly family, Isaiah B. Ross, on June 25, 2019, at Beebe Hospital in Lewes, Delaware, while surrounded by his loving wife Mary, his family and his friends.

Isaiah was born August 16, 1956, to the late Johnny Mae Bell and Gaston Banks, in Seaford, Delaware. He was also raised in Seaford, and attended the Frederick Douglass School.

Ike, as he was affectionately known, loved to fish, garden and tend to his yard. You could most likely see him washing, customizing, cleaning, tinkering, or joy riding in his special trucks. Ike worked for Perdue for 20 years, and retired in 2018, to spend much deserved quality time with his adoring wife, friends, and his custom vehicles.

Ike is survived by his loving wife of 36 years, Mary; a stepson, Willie Odoms (Cassandra); a grandson, Trinity James Odoms; one daughter, Eisha Denae Ross; 6 sisters, Francine Turner, Mary Ann DuPont (James), Lula Green, Doretha Smith (Leon), Althea Johnson (Warren), Faye Pintas (Pedro); one brother, Flozell Eugene Ross (Gladys), and a host of sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews, and close friends, including Weldon Evans, Matthew Lambert, and Tim Harmon.

“ I did not personally know Mr. Isaiah Ross. However, I do know his loving wife Mary. Mary love Mr. Ross so we love him too. Mary, I want to take this opportunity to send our deepest sympathy as you remember Isaiah. The Jones family is so sorry for your loss. Isaiah is gone from our sight, but never from our hearts. We love you Mary.
