“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. At difficult times like this we well recognize how fragile life can be. May you find comfort and support from family and friends (Proverbs 17:17). Much comfort and a sure hope can also be found in God's Word, the Bible (2 Timothy 3:16, 17; 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). Jesus tells us that one day he is going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). What a glorious day that will be! The Bible tells us that death is not only an "enemy" to us, but also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is why He promises to get rid of forever all the pain, suffering, and death mankind has experienced for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Isaiah 25:8). He purposes for obedient mankind to enjoy life on a beautiful paradise earth forever as he had purposed when he created our first human parents (Psalm 37:10, 11, 29; Genesis 1:28). Although life is difficult right now, there is a marvelous future to look forward to (Isaiah 65:20-25). When you feel up to it, please look up all these scriptures in your Bible and be comforted for what lies ahead. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
