JADEN'S LIFE

Jaden Imari Donaldson, a resident of Salisbury, Maryland, peacefully passed away on Thursday, September 22, 2022 at home in Salisbury, Maryland. Born on September 11, 2007, he was the son of Latoya (Holbrook) Joynes and Earl Donaldson, Jr. In addition, he had a wonderful supportive step father, Lamont Joynes.

Jaden received his education in the Wicomico County school system. He was known for his kindness, dancing, singing, and his love for WWE Wrestlers, especially John Cena. He also had a passion for drawing, wrestling and picking with his brother. He had a huge heart and his personality was one like no other. Jaden was a strong young man (My Baby Boy) who suffered with epilepsy since birth. His life impacted so many people during his time on earth.

Jaden leaves to cherish unforgettable memories: his mother, Latoya (Lamont) Joynes; his father, Earl Donaldson, Jr.; brother, Elijah Donaldson and sister, Alaya Donaldson, both of Salisbury, Maryland; grandfather, Earl Donaldson, Sr.; grandmother, Christie Polk; great-grandmother, Doris Christopher; aunts, Latasha Holbrook, Alece Young, Khadija Jones, Sherelle Jones, Heaven Holbrook, Faith Holbrook, Shekinah Holbrook and Bethany Holbrook; uncles, Eric and Derrick Holbrook, Lester Young and Benjamin Holbrook and host of cousins and friends.

He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Vivian Donaldson, aunts, Yvette Wilson and Doretha Young and uncle, Frank Donaldson.
