Jamaal's Life and Legacy

Jamaal Frances Taylor, a resident of Crisfield, Maryland, was born on August 17, 1984. He was the son of Lily Cecelia Taylor and the late Leroy Sidney Taylor, Sr. He unexpectedly departed his earthly life at the age of thirty-seven (37) on Friday, February 25, 2022 at home.

Jamaal or "Mal" as he was called by those close to him, attended Crisfield High School in Crisfield, Maryland. He worked in the Seafood Industry for Glenwood Evans and Southern Connection. He then began work in the production industry for Perdue, where he worked until his untimely demise.

Mal loved playing basketball, spending time with family, play fighting with his kids, eating and laughing. Mal had the brightest and prettiest smile and biggest laugh. He was known for always smiling. Every time you saw him, he had the biggest and brightest smile on his face.

Jamaal leaves to cherish fond memories: his mother, Lily Taylor of Smyrna, DE; grandparents, Oscar and Ella Mack of Princess Anne, MD; brother, Leroy Taylor, Jr. of Smyrna, DE; two sisters, (his twin sister) Shamarla (Kwesi) Thomas of New Castle, DE and Taijah Taylor-Sledge of Salisbury, MD; two
