“ When I was 2 and you were 1, I don't remember "us" all that much. When you were 2 and I was 3, you thought it funny to mimic me. You made me cry, I don't know why, but I guess it was super funny. The "crib" story still brings smiles our family. When I was 4 and you were 3, oh what a team we would be. Tighter than stitches, we'd get a few, but NO ONE came between me and you. And over the years it was you and me, our teens, our twenties, and young families. We had, and held, our family's first, but we were never farther than the phone of course. "Hey Sis"....."what up Bro" I miss your voice more than you know <3 Still, tight as stitches in my heart <3 I miss you brother, my other part.
