

James A. Burris

December 28, 2016

James (Butch) Alexander Burris departed his life on Wednesday, December 28, 2016 at Bayhealth Hospital in Dover, Delaware. James was born on August 9, 1955 in Chestertown, Maryland to the late James. A. Burris and Elizabeth Burris. James (Butch) attended the Kent County School System and then was later a member of the United States Army until he was discharged.

James (Butch) considered Solid Rock Baptist Church his home church and was attending until his health started to fail him and wasn't able to attend. He was always willing to lend a helping hand in whatever needed to be done.

James (Butch) was a Jack of all trades he was a maintenance man, electrician, carpenter, locksmith, gardener, lawn specialist and a comedian this was just to name a few of the trades that he had according to James he could do it all. His hobbies were fishing, watching westerns, listening to his music, being with his family whom he loved with all of his heart, and just enjoying life. To know James (Butch) was to love him

James (Butch) was preceded in death by his parents James and Elizabeth Burris and his brother, Calvin Burris. James (Butch) leaves to cherish his memories one devoted brother, David Burris (Hilda) of Millington, Maryland, and one devoted sister (Margaret Wilson (Richard) of Dover, Delaware and four loving aunts, Martina Jeff, Claudette Hawkins, and Jeanette Johnson all of Chestertown, Maryland, and Virginia Wilson of Chesterville, Maryland, a devoted companion, Jacqueline Jones, a devoted friend Doug who looked and cared for James and a devoted cousin, Abner, who was his chauffeur for errands and taking him to church and wherever James (Butch) wanted to go, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and family.

Lovingly Submitted,
