

James Evans

April 23, 1950 - December 12, 2020

Obituary

James Winter Evans, Jr., who will always be fondly remembered as Mr. James, Juney, The Beast, Dad, Pop Pop, Uncle Jameson and Hoss Collar was born in Salisbury, Maryland on April 23, 1950 to the late James W. Evans, Sr. and Mable Frances Peters Evans. He transitioned from earth to glory on Saturday, December 12, 2020.

James' early education was received in the public schools of Wicomico County. He attended Wenaquah Elementary School, three years at Salisbury High School and graduated from James M. Bennett Senior High School in 1968. He furthered his education at Cortes Peters Business College in Washington, DC and graduated from Strayer College in Baltimore, Maryland as an Accountant. James was employed at the Ship Café in Ocean City, Maryland where he worked alongside his godmother, the late Lola Williams. He was employed at Delmarva Power and Light (DP&L) Company for twenty-eight (28) before retiring.

James had many passions in life which included his church, watching westerns and tennis, but only when Serena William was playing. He loved talking on the telephone and seeing his children and grandchildren visit. His biggest passion of all was eating and talking about the meal he was going to eat before finishing the first one.

James leaves to cherish unforgettable memories: his high school sweetheart and wife of forty-six (46) years, Debra Cornish Evans; two children, Dana Evans and David Evans (Terria Jones-Special Friend); seven grandchildren, Latrell Graham, David Evans II, Davion Evans, Dashaun Evans, Brookelyn Davis, Malea Tull and Jayce Evans; one great-grandson, Carter Graham; one adopted granddaughter, Ja'Myra Stanley; one god daughter, Briana Evans; one uncle, Chester (Gloria) Nutter; two sisters, Terry (Lee-Roy) Wallace and Annette Evans, brothers-in-law, Franklin (Dalinda) Cornish and sister-in-law, Mary (Anthony) Simpson; his mother-in-law, Mary Cornish; four nieces; great nieces; two nephews and a host cousins and friends.

Lovingly Submitted ~ The Family