“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Grieving can be very painful and emotionally draining; however, it is necessary in order to cope with the challenges of death especially with our loved ones. We all need comfort and hope at such times. Jesus realized that very much. That is why he tells us that all those who have died will one day "hear his voice" and come back to life again, to enjoy life the way God had purposed it to be in the beginning (John 5:28, 29; Genesis 1:28). Think of this too that death is not only an enemy to mankind, but it is also an enemy to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). He therefore promises us that one day soon He is going to get rid of forever all the pain, suffering, and death mankind has experienced for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5). God's Word, the Bible reveals so much more of what is in store for those who love God and want to do His will (1 Timothy 2:3, 4). When you feel up to it, please look up these scriptures in your Bible and be comforted by the God of All Comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; 2 Timothy 3:16, 17). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this difficult time.
