

James Gaskins

January 4, 1933 - September 30, 2016

James William Gaskins was born on January 4, 1933 to the late James Amos Gaskins and Gertrude Brown. He was educated in the Baltimore City School system prior to enlisting in the U.S. Army at the age of 16. He married his good friend and childhood sweetheart Florcelia (Flo) on October 9, 1976, and he frequently referred to this union as one of the best decisions of his life. James and Flo loved to travel and they shared a love of the outdoors, which led them to relocate to Millsboro, Delaware in 1991. James passed away peacefully with his wife by his side on September 30, 2016. He is preceded in death by his parents James and Gertrude, his stepdaughter Desiree Lloyd, and his granddaughter TaShaun Mallory. He is survived by his wife Florcelia Gaskins, his children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and a host of other friends and family.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. The bible gives us hope of seeing our loved ones again during the resurrection of the dead. (Acts 24:15) Please look forward to that time. Also, look forward to the time when death, sickness and pain will be gone forever. (Revelation 21:4)Until that time may your entire family be comforted and blessed.

“ My deepest sympathy for the loss of your loved one, James. May our loving, Heavenly Father, who is the God of all comfort, sustain you during your time of sorrow. (2 Corinthians 1:3, Psalms 83:18)
He promises us that soon, "He will swallow up death forever and wipe away tears from all faces." Isaiah 25:8.
May these words provide the comfort that you need during this sad time.

“ I offer my condolences for the loss of James. Continue to lean on family and friends for support. God gives us comfort and hope at Isaiah 26:19 when we mourn on occasions like this. May you find the strength to endure the days ahead.
