

James Edward Gibbs

September 21, 1989 - February 4, 2026

JAMES' JOURNEY

James "Link" Gibbs was born on September 21, 1989. He passed away on February 3, 2026, leaving a deep and lasting impact on everyone who knew him. Link was a gentle giant.

To his family, Link was a source of strength, laughter and comfort. To his friends and community, he was someone on whom you could always count. He had many talents but cooking was one of his greatest joys. He loved sharing meals and moments with those around him. No matter how busy life became, he always made time to help others.

Link was a member of Dominion Church where he was part of the music ministry, under the leadership of Apostle Anthony Cannon and First Lady Lisa Cannon, who treated him like a son. He was there to help his church family no matter what needed to be done. Link moved to Dover a few years ago where he became a member of Maranatha Life Changing Church. He worked for the Red Clay School District.

Link was predeceased by: his maternal grandparents, Joseph Gibbs, Sr., and Mary A. King, both of Georgetown, Delaware; godmother, Alice Cannon of Seaford, Delaware; brother, Lamar Hurst of Harrington, Delaware and his grandmother, Pastor Peggy Palmer Murray.

He is survived by: his mother, Josephine Gibbs of Sandy Springs, Georgia; father, James (Sylvia) Knox of Wilmington, Delaware; sisters, Canesha Gibbs of Sandy Springs, Georgia, Monique Dorsey of Seaford, Delaware and grandfather, Anthony Murray of Snow Hill, Maryland; two special aunts, Robin Gibbs of Seaford, Delaware and Agnes Cannon of Georgetown, Delaware; special friends, Elaine Jones of Georgetown, Delaware and Julia Gonzales of Dover, Delaware, who was like a second mother to him; god daughter, Starr Jones; god brothers, Vontrell Sturgis of Millsboro, Delaware and Alontae Fillyau of Dover, Delaware and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and lots of cousins and extended family and friends.
