

James Alfred Gregg

November 8, 1948 - October 24, 2020

On October 24, 2020, at age 71, in the comfort of his daughters' home and with his children's love surrounding him, James A. Gregg, peacefully made his way to heaven after confronting cancer with a relentless tough fight to live out a peaceful life. He was a military Veteran and graduate of Lincoln University, Pennsylvania, with a Bachelor's Degree in English Literature.

James was an avid family man. After retiring from a successful career in sales, he spent the majority of his time on the beaches of Rehoboth and Lewes, Delaware. He was a simple, charismatic man who had a love for sand in his toes and a stellar Jimmy Buffet song. As an extension of his youth, he followed the deep love he had for sports. If there was a Yankees or Cowboys game on, he would not miss it. He spent the majority of his life setting a beautiful example of life for his family. He will be missed beyond measure.

James was predeceased by his beautiful parents, Paul L. Gregg and Ethel J. Awstrew (Rae).

James is survived by his loving children, Melissa Gregg, Lindsey Gregg, Geoffrey Gregg and Jamie Gregg; as well as his significant other, Dawn Scioli.
