“ James was one of my very students when I began my career at Delcastle High School. Although we called him "Hardrock", he had a heart of gold inside.I always hoped that I would run into him again, but never had that opportunity. I will remember him as the sweet gentle who always made me smile. Chris BreeDelcastle Technical High School

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Please accept my condolences. When we are grieving the loss of a loved one, we can find comfort from the scriptures. I found a couple scriptures at jw.org. Psalm 55:22 promises that God will sustain us if we just throw our burdens on him. So we need to remember to pray. I look forward to seeing him in the resurrection when he will again be enjoying friends/family. (John 5:28,29). I hope these scriptures bring you as much comfort as they bring me.
