

James Jackson

March 16, 1949 - November 21, 2019

James Jackson gained his wings on November 21, 2019, at Kent General Hospital in Dover, Delaware.

James was born on March 16, 1949, in Newark, New Jersey, to the late Mazell Jackson and Willie J. McRae. He was also loved and raised by the late Frank Jackson.

James attended Newark Public Schools. He worked as an Advertising Manager at The Star Ledger for many years, until his retirement, after which he relocated to Smyrna, DE with his beloved wife, Clara. He enjoyed watching sports and loved the NY Giants and NY Yankees.

James was the best provider and protector! Those that knew him, knew that he was short and to the point with words of wisdom and actions to follow. Some of James' favorite sayings were; "To be on time, is LATE!", "Get to the point!", "Let people run their mouths and you run your business!"

James was preceded in death by his grandparents; brothers, Frank Jackson, and Michael Jackson; sister, Shelia White and son, Gregory Hall Townes.

James leaves to cherish his loving memory his devoted wife of 44 years, Clara Jackson; daughter, Keisha McCollum (Brig); son, Cedric Hall (Tonya); grandsons, Cedric Hall (Jacklyn) and Kyle Hamlett (Ebony); granddaughters, Brionna McCollum and Zoe Hall; two great-granddaughters, Zara and Zayna; daughter-in-law, Evette Townes; godson, Donald Cunningham (Kitzie) and family; sisters, Betty, Alicia, Marion, Francene, Nita, and Regina; brothers, Earle (Denise), Calvin, and Keith (Renae); a host of nieces and nephews whom he dearly loved.
