

James Walton King Sr.

January 18, 1937 - March 31, 2021

James W. King, Sr., was born in Angola, Delaware, on Monday, January 18, 1937, to Norman and Helen King. He departed this life on Wednesday, March 31, 2021.

James was a truck driver and feed mill worker at MoPac Trucking Lines, where he operated a log truck.

James enjoyed hunting, gardening, watching wrestling, the National Association of Stock Car Racing, LLC, (NASCAR) and was an avid handyman. His greatest pastimes were going to the carnival to get oyster sandwiches and walks in the woods.

James was preceded in death by his parents; one sister; two brothers; his first wife of 27 years, Margaret King; sons, James W. King, Jr. and Roger Lee King; a great-granddaughter; and his second wife of 30 years, Mary A. Dunn-King, who sadly, passed the day before his passing, on Tuesday, March 30, 2021.

James is survived by two daughters, Emilie Reynolds of Dover, DE and Claudine Moore (Tommy) of Bridgeville, DE; eight stepchildren, Edward Adams (Pam) of Seaford, DE, Fred Adams of Federalsburg, MD, Doris Mull (Brian) of Australia, Wayne Adams of Eldorado, MD, Mimi Lahman (Fell) of Laurel, DE, Clarence Dunn, Jr. of Virginia, Steve Dunn (Marion) of Mardela Springs, MD and Mary Jane McDorman (Jerry) of Bridgeville, DE; seven grandchildren; 19 step grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; 30 step great-grandchildren and four step great-great grandchildren. He also leaves to mourn his loss, his nurse, Jessica Garcia and his Certified Nursing Assistant, MiMi White, of Vitas Hospice.