

James McCray Sr.

July 13, 1943 - October 24, 2019

James McCray Sr., son of Cubit Sr. and Bertha Williams McCray was born July 13th, 1943 in Manning South Carolina. On Thursday morning October, 24th, after a short illness he departed this life and surrendered his soul in the loving arms of Jesus. He fought a good fight until Jesus called him to rest his weary bones. James met and married the love of her life Minnie Geneva McCray, October 3th 1962 in Manning, South Carolina. He was always humble and always wore a smile on his face. His endearing smile was like sunshine to all he came in contact with. He was a gentle person and a proud man with a loving family. He enjoyed taking people to their destination. You might say he was his" on "Taxi". He had an infectious smile and caring spirit, with a joking personality. He received her education at Manning Training School in Manning, South Carolina. In 1963, the family relocated to Miami Florida, until he moved to Salisbury Maryland and finally made that his home. (Jack) James McCray Sr. is survived by: his Wife Minnie Geneva McCray, a sister Bertie Briggs, his beloved niece Betty Ann Bellinger "who cared for him in his fast days"; 4 children: 2 sons, James McCray Jr. and Aaron McCray; 2 daughters, Karen McCray and Sharon McCray, all from Salisbury, MD; and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, aunts, nephews, cousins, and friends.

"The Lord is near to all who call on Him, and to all who call on him in truth." –
Psalm 145:18
