

James Jason Moore

May 29, 1978 - March 14, 2017

James Jason Moore departed this life on Tuesday, March 14 at the Corsica Hills Center in Centreville, Maryland. He was born in Easton, Maryland on Monday, May 29, 1978 to David Lee Rankins and Carolyn Ann Jones. James, better known as, "Jay Jay", attended Seaford Senior High School in Seaford, Delaware.

He went to Job Corps in Baltimore, Maryland where he obtained a GED. He received an apprenticeship in Plumbing. Jay was a member of the Grasonville Boys Club, under the leadership of Rev. Mae Etta Moore. In his youth, he sang in Prides, Maryland in the "Prides Male Choir" along with his four brothers, under the direction of Mr. Percy James. Jay worked many jobs from construction to electrical work, plumbing, cooking and as a steamer. He attended the Love Tabernacle Church in Bridgeville, Delaware under the leadership of Pastor Raymond Taylor. Occasionally he stopped by the Bridgeville Senior Center to eat lunch, attend Bible Study and lend a helping hand, if needed. He had a heart of gold: a big heart. He was energized "like crazy". He loved to please others. You could ask him for anything, and he would give it to you. You could not tell him that your steak was more tender than his, because he could really cook a tender steak, seasoned with love. Jay took pride in his work. He had many hobbies, one of which was throwing out crab pots. He would say, "Mommy, I got something for you" and that would be the catch for that day. He had many friends of all races. He had a "Mom Jean", a "Mom Mary" and a "Mom Lucy". These women took Jason under their wings, and he lived with each of them at some point. He said "I've got a "Pop Pop John" too, and he treats me like I am his own son. Pop Pop John always remembered Jay on Christmas, making sure he gave him a gift. Jay was unique and quiet at times, always thinking, and at other times, he couldn't keep his mouth shut. We had a saying at bedtime: "Jay Jay ain't gonna talk me to death!" When he came home he would always say "Mom, don't let Pep mess with my stuff". Those were his favorite words. Jay will always be missed in our hearts and thoughts.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, Firmaine Moore and Antoine Moore and one uncle, Alfred Cole. He leaves to mourn his loss his father, David Rankins, his mother Carolyn (Sylvester) Jones, two brothers; Mandrell Moore and Andre Moore, three sisters; Janay Smith, Sasha Samuels and Ebony Jones; a special friend, Heather Quimby, one son; Jordan Hines and two daughters; Sierra Hines Moore and Jasmine Moore, his aunts; Christine "Pee Wee" Askins, Mary Felton, Valarie Cole and Cynthia Cole and his uncle, James Cole. He will be missed by many; Kenny West, Brother Daymond, Arnold Moore, Nickie, Amander, Tana, Joanne, Linda Beach Stephines, Mr. Terry, Shoe Shine Cindy and William Green.

To send flowers to the family or plant a tree in memory of James Jason Moore, please visit our Heartfelt Sympathies Store.

Tribute Wall

IR

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences. It is always painful to lose a loved one. I too have lost many dear ones to death.

No doubt you are familiar with the Lord's prayer at Matthew 6.

Jesus' words in verse 10 have been a real source of hope for me, and I would like to share it with you. In that verse Jesus says: 'Let your kingdom come. Let your will take place, as in heaven, also on earth.' Nowhere in the Bible is sickness or death mentioned as occurring in heaven; hence, I look forward to seeing God's will for the earth to be carried out just as it is in heaven.

The kingdom hope helps me to cope with my loss of loved ones. It also emphasizes Almighty God's purpose for the earth- (Psalm 115:16; Psalm 37:29), and Jesus' words at Luke 23:43 regarding Paradise.

One question you might want an answer to then is: 'How will God's kingdom alleviate the pain death causes?' An encouraging response is found in your Bible. -1 Corinthians 15:26.

I sincerely hope that these Scriptures and words serve as some comfort to you at this time.

---

Irene - March 17, 2017 at 12:00 AM

AF

“ To all family and friends,
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Many have found true comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). At John 8:32 Jesus said " and you will know the truth and the truth will set you free". For more information please visit the website jw.org.

---

A Friend - March 16, 2017 at 12:00 AM

“ My condolences to the family of James Moore. May you find comfort in the promise for the future found in God's word. There He promises that there will be a time when pain and death will be no more (Rev. 21:3, 4)

---

U - March 16, 2017 at 12:00 AM

GW

“ I am sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. I hope the family will find some comfort and strength in Jesus promise of the earthly resurrection(Acts 24:15)and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will mourn the death of a loved one.-Revelation 21:3,4;John 5:28,29;Luke 23:43. may GOD(Psalms 83:18)grant you peace and comfort now, during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

---

Gertrude Williams - March 16, 2017 at 12:00 AM