

James M Scott

November 14, 1948 - July 12, 2016

James M. Scott, son of the late John and Christina Scott, was born November 14, 1948.

James received his education at Lockerman High School in Denton, Maryland and graduated in 1966. In 1968 he joined the United States Army and served two years in Vietnam where he earned the Vietnam Campaign Medal, Vietnam Service Ribbon and the Bronze Star. He received an Honorable Discharge in 1970. He was employed with the Capital School District as a Custodian from 1978, retiring December, 2008. In addition to this, James worked part-time as a Visiting Artist in Music at Faith Elementary and Middle School 1986-2011.

James was united in Holy Matrimony to Helen Delois Bordley on July 18, 1970. To this union was born one son, James Eric Scott. James enjoyed his family. He loved children and loved pinching the “cheeks” of his many nieces and nephews when they were babies.

James was well known in the community for his love of music, by which many have been blessed for the past 56 years. He began his music ministry at Ferrells Church, later at Mt. Zion U.M. Church where he formed a gospel ensemble the Zionettes. He was a member of New Beginnings U.M. Church in Ridgely, Maryland where he also served as a Certified Lay Servant, Church Treasurer, and Choir Director. James assisted over 30 singing groups, special programs, funerals, banquets, prayer breakfasts, etc. He also shared his music ministry with his wife, Helen, who assisted with concerts, traveling not only the city of Dover but throughout the Delaware and Maryland areas. It has been said that, "if James could not find your key on the piano, then you just couldn't sing." He was a mentor to many young people and he had a gift for bringing out the hidden musical abilities of his students. James was the musician for Minus Funeral Home, Bennie Smith Funeral Home for a number of years and occasionally for Pippin Funeral Home until he became ill.

James departed this life on July 12, 2016. He was preceded in death by his father, John Scott and mother, Christina Scott; two brothers, Howard and Thomas; one sister, Karen.

James leaves to cherish his memory: his wife of 46 years, Helen Delois Scott; one son, Pastor Eric Scott (Okemah) of Chestertown, Maryland; two brothers, Samuel Scott (Faye) of Dover, Delaware, Matthew Scott (Jean) of Maryland; six grandchildren, Ezri, Sean, Eric, Jr., Lecia, Jaylin and Christian; mother-in-law, Gertrude Bordley; three goddaughters, LaTasha Scott, Tandi Cain and Kimberly Bordley; four sisters-in-law and four brothers-in-law; a host of other relatives, friends, and many who have adopted him as "Uncle James".

“ Extending deepest sympathy to family and friends in this time of sorrow. Please find comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28,29) Until that blessed day, may the GOD of all comfort grant you peace while many fond memories warm your hearts.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. The bible gives us hope of seeing our loved ones again during the resurrection of the dead. At Acts 24:15 it tells us that the dead will be resurrected. Please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief and may your entire family be strengthened and blessed at this time.

“ To the Scott family: James will be sorely missed. I really enjoyed working with him at William Henry Middle School. We go as far back as Lockerman High School. It was always a pleasure to see him and talk about the old days. Our prayers are with his lovely family. May GOD continue to bless the family.

“ I am sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. I hope the family will find some comfort and strength in Jesus promise of the earthly resurrection(Acts 24:15)and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will mourn the death of a loved one.-Revelation 21:3,4;John 5:28,29;Luke 23:43. May GOD(Psalms 83:18)grant you peace and comfort now, during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.
