

James Sharp

November 27, 1950 - September 20, 2020

James Henry Sharp was born on November 27, 1950 in Dorchester County, Maryland. He was the son of the late Esther Mae Sampson and Leroy Sharp, Sr. and the bonus son of the late Margie Ennals.

He attended the public schools of Dorchester County and graduated with the Maces Lane High School Class of 1968. James served in the United States Army for four years during the Vietnam War, after which he was honorably discharged.

“Killer”, as he was so affectionately called, loved his son “Pockets”! He was a very kind hearted person, and he loved his family. “Killer” was a die hard “Dallas Cowboys” fan!

He loved to cook, and he could cook. You could see “Killer” at any given time sitting in Groove City Mini Mart drinking his coffee and talking trash to the fellows.

“Killer” leaves to cherish precious memories: his son, James Malcom Sharp of Cambridge, Maryland; five sisters, Barbara Wheatley (Michael), Gloria Jean Berry (Henry), Christine Sharp, Gwendolyn Sharp and Mary Elliott-Bell (Barry), all of Cambridge, Maryland; four brothers, Angelo Sharp, James Ennals and Tyrone Ennals, all of Cambridge, Maryland and Jerome Ennals of Alabama; one aunt, Bessie Stewart (Eugene) of LaPlata, Maryland; one uncle, Rufus Sampson (Arlette) of Cambridge, Maryland; special nieces, Latysha Banks, whom he affectionately called "Lasagna" , Tyisha Cornish, Mar'Shon Jolley, Rah'kera Sharp and Tynesha and special nephews, Corey Sharp, Tyuane Johnson, Zekhai Cornish, and a host of great nieces, great nephews, cousins and friends.

In addition to his parents, bonus mother and stepfather, he was preceded in death by four brothers, three sisters and several aunts and uncles.
