“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. All of us have experienced the pain of death in some way sad to say. And, so, at difficult times like this we are confronted with the stark reality of how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). So, my wife and I send this condolence to you with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has comforted us with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God.

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason, as well as others, He promises to remove FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).

It is our hope that you NOT take our word for what has been written in this condolence; but that you read and accept what God's Word, the Bible says. We encourage you to please take a moment to read and meditate on all these referenced scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16). My wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ To James mom, brother, his children, nena and all his close friends, stay strong and keep your heads held high. James and I hated each other one week and bffs the next but he was a great person . Idc who agrees with that and who doesn't. He was a very funny guy and always knew how to have fun and lift peoples sprits. And then he had his james moments but hey who does and u know what james wouldn't be james if he didn't. Our group of friends always called him poppop cause he was the oldest out everyone lol. Ill never forget our memories of car meets or me and nena chasing u and adam around and always fighting over who got to hang at the courts lol. Im so glad I got to see u right before this happened . U are gonna be greatly missed and never forgotten #loveyapoppop #adog #cdog #walmarttires shine #ripppoppop

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ So sorry for your loss. May you find comfort from Gods word. A comfort to me has been 2 Corinthians 1: 3, 4 ...the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials so that we may be able to comfort others, with the comfort we received from God.

“ I would like to offer my personal condolences to the family. I hope that you will be able to find strength in God's promise at (Revelation 21: 4) that soon “he will wipe out every tear from the eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away”. You are in my prayers.
