

James Edward Wilkins

August 21, 1942 - September 5, 2017

James Edward Wilkins of Cordova, MD departed this life on Tuesday September 5, 2017 at University of Maryland Medical Center at Easton.

Born on August 21, 1942 to the late James and Rosetta Wilkins, Sr. He was educated in the Talbot County Public Schools. James worked for many companies including, Acme, Allen Foods and until his illness he retired from Barry T. Fox Trucking Company.

He loved driving the truck and would often tell stories about going to the different places he would go. We could always count on him to give us directions to where ever we needed to go. After he would give you a couple different ways to get there, he would say “ you all need to know two ways to get where ever you are going in case the road is closed or there’s construction on the road”. He also loved cutting his grass and keeping his vehicles nice and clean.

He is survived by his loving wife Brendette of 39 years. Also left to cherish his memories are two sons, Terrance (Tina) Wilkins of Annapolis, MD, Jermaine Wilkins of Cordova, MD. Two grandchildren, Cierra and Joshua Wilkins of Annapolis, MD. Four sisters Darlene (Edwin) Wilmer of Denton, MD, Bernice (James) Wilson of Unionville, MD, Roselee Wilkins and Elizabeth (Ronald) Nichols both of Preston, MD. Two brothers Isaac (Christine) Copper and Charles Wilkins both of Easton, MD. One brother-in-law Wendell David Hayman Jr. of Preston, MD. One sister-in-law Daisy Gardner and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

He was preceded in death by sister-in-law Sheila G. Brice (Wayman), and brother-in-law Phillip Gardner.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ Grief can be hard, may your family find strength in God promise at Revelation 21:4 that soon: he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. You are in my prayers.
