“ Dear Lucille, Mack and Family,

*I thoughts and prayers are with you. Always cherish the wonderful times you had together. I did not know your sister/mother but you have told me wonderful stories of the two of you. I know how deeply you love her. Love you both,
Teresa*

“ To all family and friends,

Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Many have found true comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). At John 8:32 Jesus said " and you will know the truth and the truth will set you free". For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ My wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. It surely is at times like this that we are reminded how fragile life can be and reflect on how precious this gift from God truly is (Psalm 36:9; James 4:14). Along with the comfort and support we receive from family and friends (Proverbs 17:17), we draw much comfort and a wonderful hope by means of God's Word, the Bible. In it Jesus tells us that one day he is going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). How important it is that we have faith and confidence that this will take place (John 11:25). Since not only mankind, but also Almighty God views death as an "enemy" (1 Corinthians 15:26), individuals brought back to life will experience something they have never known before. God's Word tells us that God is going to remove forever all the pain, suffering, and death humans have endured for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Isaiah 25:8). In this way God's purpose for us to enjoy life in the home He created for us, namely the earth, will be fulfilled (Genesis 1:28; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). God loves us dearly and through His Word He provides us with a hope and a glorious future (Jeremiah 29:11)! Please look all these scriptures up in your Bible when you can and be blessed as you see what God's will is for you (1 John 2:17). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
