The Legacy of Janie Rebecca Miller

Ms. Janie Rebecca Miller was born on May 14, 1935 to the late Charlie Miller and Jennie Rue Miller in Atlantic, Virginia. She was truly blessed and transitioned from this life to glory on May 30, 2022.

She worked at Wrights Seafood as a cook. To know her was to love her.

Janie accepted Christ as her Savior at an early age. She loved her church and family. And she truly loved the Lord and trusted Him with all her heart. Her favorite saying was, "If I had wings, I'd fly away." She loved to cook and spend time with her family. She loved to travel and spend time crafting at the senior citizen center. Her favorite TV show was Texas Ranger Walker.

She was preceded in death by her loving father, Charlie Miller and mother, Jennie Miller, her brothers, Roland Taylor and Linwood Williams, sister, Francis Watson, daughter, Denise Miller and great granddaughter, Ja'Nasia Miller.

She leaves to cherish precious memories: her daughter, Teresa Daniels; son, Earnest Miller; sister, Gloria Phillips; brother, Michael Miller; granddaughters, Cynthia (Tyrone) Watford and Jennifer (Richard) Corbin; grandsons, Satchell

Miller and Zymari Tucker; other granddaughters and grandsons in New Jersey; great grandchildren, Sheldon Parker, Jeffery (Denise) Parker, Brandon Graham, Logan (Janelle) Graham, Malachi Corbin, Noah Corbin, Tori Miller and Kayla Miller; nephew, Elders Leon (Kakishka) Phillips; nieces, Shakeva Phillips Delora Manning; six great, great grandchildren, Jeffery, Olivia, Cassidy, Jaden, Jada and Cameron Parker; great nieces, Kemyah Pettit and LaTavia Phillips; special cousin, John Taylor; all of the Banks family and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins other loving relatives and friends.
