

Jared J. Hill

February 2, 1998 - May 30, 2020

Jared Jamil “DeuceBaby” Hill, a young euphoric father, a vibrant local rapper, an amazing friend, a heartfelt brother and a loving son, sadly departed this life on May 30, 2020, at the age of 22, in Baltimore, Maryland.

Jared was born on February 2, 1998, in Wilmington, Delaware, to Robin Huff and Chris Hill. He graduated from Concord High School in 2017 and he immediately started at Wesley College in Dover, Delaware. In 2018, Jared decided to pursue his music career full-time. He was a great rapper and could drop a freestyle on anybody. All of Jared’s songs are a product of his pure passion for the craft and reflected a lot of the pain, struggles and good times in his life.

In the beginning of this year, Jared welcomed his son, Kadir Milan into the world, who became his pride and joy. Any time that Jared could spend time with Kadir, he was with him. Kadir meant the world to Jared and everyone knew it. Realizing what having a baby entailed, Jared worked and also started selling authentic raw shea butter and black soap on the side to help his son and Kadir’s mother.

Aside from music and rapping, Jared also had a passion for football. Growing up, he gained a lot friends from playing the sport. He has trophies and certificates to prove his dedication and memories galore, from road trips to Florida to team dinners with the gang, Jared kept the people laughing, kept the people running and kept the people inspired. We will miss Jared and his charming smile.

Jared was preceded in death by our lovely mother, Robin Huff-Jordan.

Jared is survived by his one and only son, Kadir Milan Hill; our father, Chris Hill; our step-father, Melvin D. Jordan; seven siblings, Shanda Watson, Justin Hill, Arieonnia Hill, Jeremy Jordan, Jai Jordan, Javier Jordan and Carlah Cashe Monea Jordan; two grandmothers; and a multitude of aunts, uncles and cousins.

“ I was saddened to hear of Jared\u2019s death. I knew him as one of my \u201c Brandywood Busy Bees\u201d. He usually had a big grin on his face and was often a bit mischievous, but always one of my favorites. Love hearing he was on a good path with his music and new son. Sending condolences to the entire Hill family for both Jared and his mother. I will always have fond memories of the Hill family.
