“ I am deeply grieved to read of the passing of your sweet little girl; please accept my sincere sympathy. I hope you will find peace and comfort from the Scriptures during this time of sorrow. Jesus promise there is going go be a resurrection, when he with the power of God's holy spirit will raise those sleeping in death back to life.- John 5:28,29. Jesus likens death to sleep, which he promise to awaken.-John 11:49-56. Even though little Jasheena has to sleep for just awhile, just imagine how joyful you will be when Jesus awaken her from the grip of death, restoring her back to life, just like he did the little twelve year old girl, he touched and awaken her from death.-Luke 7:49-56. So until that blessed promise from Jesus is fulfilled; may Jehovah God continue to comfort the Bull Family with HIS love and grace.-Isaiah 66:13.
