

Jawan Lamar Harris

November 8, 1981 - November 10, 2018

On early Saturday morning, November 10, 2018, Jawan Lamar Harris departed this life at his home with his family. Jawan Harris was born November 8, 1981. He attended Kent County public school and graduated in June 2003. Jawan worked at Roses and made employee of the month. He also worked at and attended Kent Center for 15 years.

Jawan was affectionately known as Joan because his niece and nephews couldn't pronounce his name. Jawan loved working on motors of any kind, but he never fixed anything. He loved listening to 90's rap and he had over 500 CDs. Every time he went to Dover he had to buy a new album. He liked to visit people in Butlertown, especially Cousin Marie Butler.

Jawan leaves to cherish his memory, his parents, Vivian Swinson and Keith Harris, his brother Lamont Harris, and six half-brothers and five half-sisters. He also leaves behind his maternal grandparents, Chris and Reverend Mary Walker and Gwen Swinson (proceeded in death is his Grandfather Henry Swinson), and his paternal grandparents John and Barbara Harris. Jawan will forever be remembered by his uncles, Chris (Diane) Walker, Gordon (Robin) Walker, Richard Walker, Terrence Swinson, Gary Harris and Thurston Harris (proceeded in death by Vincent Harris).

Jawan also leaves behind Special Cousin Angie Comegys, his Godmother Jackie Jones and his Aunt Valerie Harris. Jawan was loved by nephews Hezikai and Zy and niece Kaiasia Harris. He was also loved by his Kent Center family, and he loved them. Jawan loved and liked everybody he met. You didn't have to be blood relations to be in his family.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."
