Jeffrey's Journey

Jeffrey Eric McCullough, Sr. was born in Salisbury, Maryland on Thursday, January 18, 1962 to Jessie and Vivian McCullough. After a long battle, Jeffrey transitioned from his earthly life to his eternal resting place of sleep on Thursday, November 14, 2024. He was preceded in death by his father, Jessie McCullough and his son, Jonathan Turner-Brown. Jeffrey graduated from Bennett Sr. High School in 1980 where he enjoyed being a part of the basketball team. He was always a hard worker, working many years at Campbell Soup Company.

Jeffrey was the light of his wife Sheila's life. Jeffrey was dedicated to Jehovah and his family. He truly loved family. Jeffrey had a heart of gold. No matter what you needed, he would always be there for you. He was very athletic, excelling in basketball, baseball, football, swimming, skating and bowling. He loved sports, especially his beloved Dallas Cowboys. One of his favorite hobbies was fishing. He often spoke of fond memories of fishing with his father Jessie growing up. Jeffrey was very fun-loving, had a great sense of humor, loved music, and loved to dance. He was always the life of the party.

He leaves behind his affection and loving memories to his many relatives, and friends, which include: his wife, Sheila McCullough of Salisbury, Maryland; his children, Erica Flecha (Josh Flecha) and Jeffrey McCullough, Jr., both of New York, Brandon McCullough (Ericka) of Townsend, Delaware and Jeremy McCullough and Jalisha McCullough, both of Salisbury, Maryland, Jeffrey Bobbit and Megan Bobbit, both of Georgia, Jerome Postley of Seaford, Delaware, Natasha Dashiell of Salisbury, Maryland and Nachele Turner of Fruitland, Maryland; his three siblings, Jesse McCullough of New Jersey, Dee Copeland of Salisbury, Maryland and Terri L. Hale of Delmar, Delaware; two nephews, Marques Hale of Santa Ana, California and Madison Copeland of Salisbury, Maryland; eleven grandchildren; three great grandchildren and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Jeffrey fought his fight; he finished his race and it's now time for him to rest. We love you Jeffrey until we meet again.
