

Jeffrey Seldon

April 4, 1983 - July 16, 2021

My Life Story

Jeffrey Damone Seldon was born on April 4, 1983, in Washington D.C., to Ethel (Pam) and Jeffrey Seldon. Jeffrey departed this life suddenly, on July 16, 2021.

Jeffrey was educated in the Prince Georges County Public school. As a child he loved sports he started playing little league football with Kettering Largo Boys and Girls club from the age of six until he aged out, his favorite football team was the Dallas Cowboys.

Growing up Jeffrey was known as “Wolf” by all of his childhood friends. They had a brotherhood bond and kept in touch no matter where they were in their lives. He loved his family and friends. Jeffrey was funny and always telling comical stories. He was patient, caring and loved children.

One of Jeffrey’s first jobs was working with his aunt Shelby who proceeded him in death and longtime Friend John (Jordache) at the P.G Mall at the Easter Bunny Stand. He also loved working with his hands and his last jobs was at Premier Office Solutions in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

On March 17, 2011, his loving daughter Janyia Seldon was born who was the apple of his eye. On December 23, 2014, Jeffrey married Kendra Taylor and from this union they had two sons, Jacion and Teagan and a special daughter, Taliyah. He was great father who loved his kids.

Jeffrey leaves to cherish his memories, his wife, Kendra; his children, Jacion, Teagan, Janiya and Taliyah; parents, Pam Newman and Jeffrey Seldon; sister, Shadona Seldon (Nate); cousin who is like a little brother, Jamel Newman; grandparents, James Newman, Shirley Newman, and Raymond Seldon, Sr.; uncles, James "Unkie" Newman (Erica) and Raymond Seldon, Jr. (Jackie), special uncles, Pete Smith and William Proctor; aunts, Phyllis Contee (Anthony); and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
