

Jennifer Alfreda Ames

September 28, 1962 - August 8, 2023

Jennifer Alfreda Stevenson Ames was born to Alice Stevenson and the late Raymond Johnson on September 28, 1962, in Salisbury, Maryland. She transitioned suddenly at Tidal Health in Salisbury, Maryland on August 8, 2023.

Jennifer was educated in Worcester County Public Schools and graduated from Snow Hill High School in 1980. In January 1986, Jennifer began her career in education as a half day office assistant at Snow Hill Middle School. Over the years, she became the backbone and heartbeat of the school. Her knowledgeable nature made her the school's go to person. She was everything to everybody; from students, to parents, to staff. Jennifer knew it all. She loved her job, her school, and her students. She wasn't just the school secretary; she was a counselor when a student couldn't find their way. Many generations of Snow Hill students have been impacted by her influence.

Jennifer leaves to cherish fond memories, her mother, Alice Stevenson of Snow Hill, MD; one son, Maurice (Sierra) Ames and one daughter, Markeela Ames, both of Snow Hill, MD; one bonus son, Brandon Ames of Berlin, MD; five grandchildren, Zci'Aera Ames, Brianah Ames, Maurice Ames III, Trinity Lewis-Ames, and Alijah Cotton; four sisters, Mary (Avery) Purnell, Marigold (Kenny) Morris, Darlene Banks, and Vanessa (Wayne) Ballard; four brothers, Sherron (Lisa) Stevenson, Darryl (NanNette) Stevenson, Antione (Lenice)

Stevenson, and Raymond “Petey” Foreman; four God-sisters, Shalonda (Brian) Kelly, Evonne Truitt, Evette Truitt-Purnell, and Jeanie Waters-Blake; one godbrother, Edward Johnson; two godchildren, Tonya Bowen and De-Anglo Townsend; mother-in-law, Sarah Ames; three special friends and confidants, Eloise Henry-Gordy, Maureen Toppings, and Leon Doughty; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ What a huge loss the passing of Jennifer will leave at SHMS, Haven House, her church, her community, her family and all of us who loved her. Jennifer didn't need to verbally announce to anyone about her faith. She lived it! She had a calming way about her that spoke volumes of a deep pool of the love she had for all who came in her presence

Dear Jennifer, The world has lost a beautiful person. One so willing to give so much of her time and energy to help other people. Such an inspiration to all lives you touched. Your spirit will continue to live in your children and many others. So glad I had the chance to talk with you before your eternal rest. BLESS YOU. THANK YOU!
