

Jerry M. Wilson Jr.

April 29, 1955 - April 3, 2016

Jerry M. Wilson, Jr., the late son of Jerry M Wilson, Sr. and Christina Ayres, peacefully departed life on Sunday, April 3, 2016. Jerry Wilson was born on April 29, 1955 in Virginia.

He received his education in the Virginia School District. He served his country from 1972-1976 in the Navy before he was honorably discharged. After serving his country, he worked various other jobs such as: Air Pax in Cambridge where he worked faithfully for 27 years until they shut down; and various trucking companies as a truck driver before retiring.

Some of his hobbies included: race car driving, fixing cars, hanging out and talking with family and friends. Jerry Wilson was a fun-loving and outgoing person but most important, he was a family man. He was generous and would help anyone that came his way, never turning anyone away.

He leaves to cherish his memories his son, Denverick Wilson; his mother, Christina Ayres; two sisters, Zena Ayres and Zenobia McCray; one brother, Zel Wilson, all of Virginia; a loving companion of 18 years and fiancé that has been there every step of the way during his illness, Mona Lisa Smith; 10 grandchildren but three of his granddaughters were very special to his heart and never left his side during his sickness, Tysheia Smith, Lakeisha Smith and Jackiesh Reeves; two grandsons, hold a very special place in his heart, Kinte Smith, Jr. and Kal-el Smith; also a dear friend, Celeste Scott who was there for him every step of the way; three special friends and a cousin that he considered his brothers, Roger Pinder, Al Woolford, Leroy Ralph (AKA June bug) and James Kellam.

He was preceded in death by his father, Jerry M. Wilson, Sr.; one brother, Zed Wilson; two nieces, Zarissa Ayres and Regina Ayres; two great-nieces, Jordan Ayers and Zoe Stone; and one great-nephew, Jonathan Ayres Stratton. Jerry Wilson, Jr. will truly be missed.
