

Jesse James Horsey

October 29, 1956 - August 19, 2014

Jesse James Horsey was born October 29, 1956, the son of Agnes Fontaine-Horsey and the late William Henry Horsey, Sr. He departed this life on Tuesday, August 19, 2014 at 2:00 pm at his home in Salisbury, Maryland.

Jesse attended Westover Elementary and Somerset High School in Somerset County. He joined Job Corp and then later entered the military. Jesse was very talented in art and creative writing.

He attended New Birth Church, under the leadership of Apostle & Pastor Jackson. He ministered with his mother at nursing homes until he became unable to work. Jesse was a mentor to the neighborhood children around the Tangier Street area, while working at Peninsula Roofing. At Christmas time, he would pass out toys to the children around this area also. When he couldn't get out everyone in the neighborhood fed and brought him food items for these acts of kindness and generosity. We are sincerely grateful to one and all.

Jesse leaves to mourn his departure: his mother, Agnes Horsey; three sisters—Joanne (Chris) Cottman, Charlotte Horsey and Elizabeth (Pastor Robert Faulcon); two brothers—William Henry Horsey, Jr. and David Lee (Joan) Horsey; three children—Rios, J.J. and Maria Horsey; seven nephews; three nieces and a host of great nieces, great nephews and friends.

Jesse was preceded in death by his father, William H. Horsey, Sr.; a niece, Yolanda Handy, two aunts, Inez Boyd and Daisy Robins; three uncles, Garfield Stallings, Herbert Fountain and David Horsey and his nephew Robert Troy Handy.

Jesse was a friend to all who met and knew him. He was never at a loss for words to either make you laugh or give you words of wisdom attached.

To send flowers to the family or plant a tree in memory of Jesse James Horsey, please visit our Heartfelt Sympathies Store.