

Jesse L. Stokes

July 18, 1953 - November 3, 2014

Jesse Lee Stokes was a lifelong resident of Harford County, Maryland.

He was born in Joppa to the late Mary Broadneck Stokes and Henry Stokes. He was temporarily residing in Cambridge, MD. Jesse received his education from Edgewood High School. During his senior year he enlisted in the United States Army.

Upon his return from the Army he mastered and enjoyed the moving and storage business. This resulted in long term employment with Bekins, Parks, and Hampton Moving & Storage Companies. In 1981, he married his best friend and high school sweetheart Denise Harris. He enjoyed watching his massive collection of movies and telling fabricated stories. His favorite Bible verse was the Lord's Prayer.

Matthew 6:9-13

He is survived by his wife, Denise, son, Paul Ross, daughters, Jessica and Danielle and granddaughter Breanna McCrae. His brothers, Wayne, John Allen and Samuel Stokes and a host of special nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and his special coworkers from Mr. D moving & Storage in Cambridge, MD.

Jesse was preceded in death by his sisters, Janie Smith, Mary Lee Stokes,

Sandra Hawthorne and brother Charles Stokes.
