

Jessie Mae Irving

June 7, 1925 - January 15, 2015

Jessie Mae Irving was born on June 7, 1925 to Daisy Mae Atkins in Blythe, Georgia. She departed this life on Thursday, January 15, 2015 at home in Hampton, Virginia. Prior to her brief stay in Virginia, she had resided in Bridgeville, Delaware since 1955 where she was employed as a factory worker. However, in her later years she worked as a laundry worker at the Methodist Manor House in Seaford, Delaware where she retired.

Jessie Mae was a faithful member of Mt. Olive Baptist Church. She sang in the Senior Choir. She loved the Lord and her church. Jessie Mae was a woman of faith. During her struggle with kidney failure and heart disease when asked how she was, she replied, "I am blessed and God is good." She never complained.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Moses Irving; her mother, Daisy Mae Bynes; five brothers: George Freeman, Robert Freeman, David Bynes, Edward Bynes and Alfreddie Bynes; and one sister, Niller Freeman. She was also preceded by a special cousin, Mildred Brooks who was like a sister.

She leaves to cherish her memory her four sisters: Agnes (Roosevelt) Youman of Savannah, GA; Ruby Bynes of Atlanta, GA, Pauline Allen of Pahokee, FL and Judy (Willie) Holmes of Belle Glade, FL; one brother, John Bynes of Pahokee, FL. Jessie Mae also leaves to cherish her memory a cousin, James (Linda) Brooks of Seaford, DE, whom she raised. She also leaves behind a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, friends and church family.

To send flowers to the family or plant a tree in memory of Jessie Mae Irving, please visit our
Heartfelt Sympathies Store.