“ Dot we\u2019re truly going to miss you! You have always been a kind, caring person, opening your doors to everyone. Most importantly years ago, you opened your heart to learn about the wonderful truths found in the Bible and developed a close personal relationship with Jehovah God. You trusted in his words at Job 14:14,15 where it says, \u201cif a man dies can he live again? I will wait..until my relief comes. You will call and I will answer, you will long for the works of your hands.\u2019 See you again soon Dot. Family and friends, we\u2019re so sorry for your loss, may you find comfort in the Bible\u2019s hope for the future.Robert & Teresa

“ Dot, I am glad to have known you during my life. You showed me nothing but love and kindness . You heard my cry and offered an invitation for me to talk with you whenever I wanted. Rest easy now in our Lord\u2019s loving arms. Gone too soon but forever in my heart.

“ Our family has thoughts of our cousin Dot and her family during this time. Lots of back in the day memories of the shared laughter and fun, from Star Hill to Dover. It is hoped your fond memories will outweigh the pain and tears of your loss, today, and replaced with tears of joy for Dot, who has made it over to a new found place of forever PEACE.The Abrams Family

“ Dot, you will be truly missed. Eric and Toni truly enjoyed your Bible Studies weekly. One of her favorite scripture was Psalms 34:15. The eyes of Jehovah are on the righteous and his ears listen to the cry for help. Jehovah heard her cry with her illness. She tried to establish a relationship with Jehovah and succeeded, she loved reading the scriptures. She fought a fine fight, rest now Dot. Our love goes out to the family Agape love, Eric and Toni
