

JoAnn Kathleen Foster

July 14, 1948 - January 1, 2018

JoAnn Kathleen Foster was called home to be with our Lord and Savior January 1, 2018, at the age of 69.

JoAnn was born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, on July 14, 1948, to James and Grace Lewis. She graduated from South Hills High School in 1967, and shortly thereafter, moved to Detroit, Michigan, where she married Oliver Foster. From this union, in 1971, her only child, Andreia, was born.

JoAnn was a life-long, hard worker, having a multitude of jobs in many different fields, including accounting, bookkeeping and factory jobs while in Michigan. She permanently moved to Stillpond, Maryland, in 1987, and shortly thereafter, began working at Wisco Envelope Company. After the plant closed, JoAnn accepted positions at WalMart Super Store, and finally retired as a retail manager from Roses Department Store in 2011.

JoAnn was a loving mother, a devoted partner, beloved sister and grandmother, and a good-natured friend. She enjoyed life to the fullest, but especially fishing, gardening, and cooking. In fact, she was famous for her masterful skills of BBQing, which brought everyone closer together during the summer months. JoAnn had a heart of gold. It was well known by many, that if you needed help, she would not hesitate to extend that helping hand. This, among other qualities such as her interminable humor, high-spirit and ceaseless positivity, is why she is loved by the many lives she touched. She will be dearly missed by her family, friends and all who knew her.

JoAnn was preceded in death by her parents, James and Grace Lewis; sister, Devaughn Bone; and brother, Terry Lewis. JoAnn is survived by her loving daughter, Andreia Williamson (Dwayne); her devoted fiancé of 31 years, Geary Caulk; three beautiful grandchildren, Dominic, Briana, and Donovan; sister, Alverta Cole (James); and brothers, James Lewis (Patricia) and Muntavo Lewis.

“ Please accept my sympathy, My favorite text is, Acts 17:31, which states: ‘Because [God] has set a day in which he purposes to judge the inhabited earth in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and he has furnished a guarantee to all men in that he has resurrected him from the dead.’ Jesus’ resurrection is our guarantee of a future resurrection.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ Dear Family,

I wish to extend my deepest sympathies during this difficult time. May you find strength in Gods promise at Revelation 21:4 that soon: he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. You are in my prayers.
