

Joann E. Jennings

December 21, 1937 - September 28, 2013

On September 28, 2013, God chose to call to rest one of his children Joann Elizabeth Bolden Jennings. Born December 21, 1937 to the late Rosemary Bolden Thoroughgood and Norman Dorsey of Seaford, Delaware. She departed this earthly life at St. Francis Hospital in Wilmington, Delaware with her family by her side.

Joann attended Frederick Douglas Elementary School in Seaford, Delaware and William C. Jason Comprehensive High School in Georgetown, Delaware. After graduation, Joann went on to further her education at Maryland State College, now University of Maryland Eastern Shore in Princess Anne, Maryland.

Joann moved to New Rochelle, New York where she began her nursing career at New Rochelle Hospital Medical Center with 30 years of service before retiring. While employed at the hospital, Joann met and joined hands in marriage to Arthur Jennings. The two lived in Mount Vernon, NY before relocating to Danville, Virginia until March of this year when they decided, once again, to relocate to Dover, Delaware.

Joann leaves to cherish her memories her husband, Arthur Jennings, two sons Wayne Clark of New York City, Michael Clark of Salisbury, Maryland; one step-son Michael Jennings, one aunt Mildred Donnell of Galloway Township,

New Jersey; three sisters Joyce Percival, Ivy Thoroughgood, and Patricia Shillingford (Errol) all of Mt. Vernon, NY; one brother Norman Matthews (Bernadette); a sister-in-law Sally Mitchell (Floyd), brother-in-law Frank Jennings (Beverly); a very devoted childhood friend, Minister Shirley Allen of Mt. Holly, NJ, Rev. Dr. Geraldine J. Jones of Dover, DE and Rev. Hyacinth Lee of New Rochelle, NY; eight grandchildren: Michael, Jr., Stephanie, Brittany, Sabrina, Monty, Danielle, Chanel, Pamela, & a host of nieces, nephews, grand nephews, cousins and friends.
