

Jocelyn Jean Jones

December 14, 1943 - September 6, 2021

Jocelyn Jean Jones, “Jackie”, quietly departed this life on Monday evening, September 6, 2021, at MedStar Harbor Hospital Center in Baltimore, Maryland. Jackie, daughter of the late Geraldine Mary Agnes Ward and Alonzo Burris, was born on December 14, 1943, in Kent County, Maryland.

Jackie attended Kent County Public Schools. She worked as a domestic housekeeper for many years. She was employed by the Campbell Soup Company and later worked at Dixon Valve & Coupling Company until she retired.

Jackie was affectionately known to her family and friends as Mom, Nana, or Miss Jackie. She had a special kind of love for everyone who knew her. What she loved the most was spending time with her family, especially her twin sister, Ercerlyn. She enjoyed yard sales, cooking Sunday dinners, fishing and playing the lottery.

Jackie was preceded in death by one daughter, Myra Michelle Brown; one grandson, Tyray Davon Gilbert; one great-grandson, Lalan Garrett Rush; one sister, Arnita Fields; one sister-in-law, Grace Ward; three brothers, Marvin Douglas Burris, Alonzo Burris and Wayne Carnell Ward, Sr.; two brothers-in-law, Marshall J. Fields, Jr. and William Valentine; one niece, Marsha Justine Fields; one nephew, Kevin Burris; and one godson, Jawan Lamar Harris.

Jackie leaves to cherish her precious memories, four children, Donald Seeney (Mary), Pamela Copper (Kelvin), Ernestine Anderson (George) and Dee Reed (Keith); nine siblings; Terrance Ward, Charles Ward, Nettie Wilson, Ercerlyn Green, Larselyn Warren, Sharon Valentine, Doretha Burris, Claude Burris and Phyllis Ozene; eleven grandchildren; thirty-nine great-grandchildren; seven great-great grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.
